Sir:

RESPONSE

The Notice to File Missing Parts (copy enclosed herewith) indicates that the declaration included with the application is unsigned. According to our records, the signed original of the declaration was filed with the application papers on November 26, 2001.

We are enclosing a copy of the application transmittal letter together with a copy of the signed declaration, as well as a copy of the return postcard date stamped by the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

As best we can understand at this point, if your files contain a declaration, it should be the signed original.

Please advise the undersigned if anything further is required of us.

Respectfully submitted,
